

IYIP INTERNSHIP 2024-2029

Person responsible for research and communication strategies on the right to education in Argentina

Internship location: Buenos Aires, Argentina

Host organization: Campaña Argentina por el Derecho a la Educación (CADE)

The Argentina Campaign for the Right to Education (CADE) is a joint action of different organizations engaged in public education, working at the national level to achieve new equality in education.

Position Title : Person responsible for research and communication strategies on the right to education

Mandate: The intern will work closely in Buenos Aires with Campaña Argentina por el Derecho a la Educación (CADE). They will work within the organization in three priorities related to their capabilities: a) create content for media platforms, b) conduct research on current projects regarding securing, defending Internet access, freedom of expression and women's rights, (through the methodology of feminist popular education, the work focuses on trafficking of women and girls, sexual violence and domestic violence, which are considered the cruel manifestations gender violence). c) strengthen the organization's network. The specific objective of this project is to help strengthen civil society in Argentina through a more strategic and secure use of ICT. During their 3 months internship in Argentina, interns will benefit from adequate accommodation and a safe and secure workplace in Buenos Aires.

The intern will, among other things, have the opportunity to focus on the following areas:

- Communication and audiovisual: use of ICT to promote women, youth and sustainable mobility in Argentina.
- Research and project writing: support for the partner in writing financing proposals for projects focused on the environment, sustainable development, mobility and urban planning.

Required Skills : The candidate must have a strong interest in the field of international development, gender equality, but also in communication, research work and project writing. They must speak Spanish and have good writing skills

Training before departure and upon return from the internship

Before leaving, participants have the chance to participate in a 2 weeks (10 business days in total) professional training course (in French and in English with accommodations) led by instructors recognized in their field, during which they will address diverse themes as per the following program.

The IYIP also aims to help participants integrate the job market when they return. In this context, participation in the program includes workshops designed to improve interview skills and strengthen job search tools.

In addition, participation in the IYIP covers:

- Travel and medical insurance costs;
- Plane tickets;
- Mandatory vaccinations*;
- The cost of the visa, if necessary;
- The organization of accommodation ;
- Daily living expenses ;
- Personalized follow-up during your international stay.

Duration of international stay: 3 months

To be eligible for the International Youth Internship Program (IYIP), the candidate must:

- Be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident;
- Be facing barriers to employment by belonging to or identifying with a group of people who face discrimination such as people living with disabilities, Indigenous people, racialized youth and members of the 2SLGBTQI+ community.
- Be between the ages of 18 to 30 years old at the time of final selection (i.e. at the time of signing the contract by the intern and Alternatives);
- Have never participated in the IYIP (with some exceptions: see our FAQ section)

Language: good knowledge of written and spoken Spanish required.

Interested? To register, please access the form below by clicking on apply.

Only those who send their CV and covering letter (in PDF via the registration form) will be considered in the selection process.

Information: psij@alternatives.ca

Take your chance!