

IYIP INTERNSHIP 2024-2029

Person in charge of research and communication strategies for the rights to education in Brazil

Internship location: São Paulo, Brazil

Host organization: Campaña Latinoamericana por el Derecho a la Educación (CLADE) CLADE acts for the realization of human rights to education and the strengthening of democracies in 18 countries of Latin America and the Caribbean, by articulating national forums, regional networks and international member organizations and by promoting actions for an universal, free, inclusive and quality education throughout life, without any form of discrimination. CLADE is part of the Global Campaign for Education, an international network that operates in 124 countries, and is currently forming its steering committee.

Position Title: Person in charge of research and communication strategies for the rights to education

IMPORTANT - Language: good knowledge of written and spoken Spanish required. Knowledge of Portuguese is a plus.

Mandate: The intern will work closely in São Paulo with the Campaña Latinoamericana por el Derecho a la Educación (CLADE) and its member organizations. They will work within the organization on three priorities subjects related to their capabilities:

- a) create content for media platforms,
- b) conduct research on current projects regarding securing, defending Internet access, freedom of expression and women's rights, (Through the methodology of feminist popular education, the work focuses on the trafficking of women and girls, sexual and domestic violence, which are considered the cruel manifestations of gendered violence)
- c) strengthen the organization's network. The specific objective of this project is to help strengthen the civil society in Brazil through a more strategic and secure use of ICT.

During their 3- months internship in Brazil, interns will benefit from adequate accommodation and a safe and secure workplace in São Paulo.

The intern will, among other things, have the opportunity to focus on the following areas:

- Communication and audiovisual: use of ICT to promote women's and young people's rights, sustainable mobility in the province of Manabí.
- Research and project writing: support for the partner in the writing of financing proposals for projects focused on the environment, sustainable development, mobility and town planning.

Required Skills : The candidate must have a strong interest in international development and gender equality, as well as in communications, media and research. They must speak Portuguese or Spanish and have good writing skills.

Training before departure and upon return from the internship

Before leaving, participants have the chance to participate in a 2 weeks (10 business days in total) professional training course (in French and English with accommodations) led by instructors recognized in their field, during which they will address diverse themes as per the following program.

The IYIP also aims to help participants integrate the job market when they return. In this context, participation in the program includes workshops designed to improve interview skills and strengthen job search tools.

In addition, participation in the IYIP covers:

- Travel and medical insurance costs;
- Plane tickets;
- Mandatory vaccinations*;
- The cost of the visa, if necessary;
- The organization of accommodation ;
- Daily living expenses ;
- Personalized follow-up during your international stay.

Duration of international stay: 3 months

To be eligible for the International Youth Internship Program (IYIP), the candidate must:

- Be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident;
- Be facing barriers to employment by belonging to or identifying with a group of people who face discrimination such as people living with disabilities, Indigenous people, racialized youth and members of the 2SLGBTQI+ community.
- Be between the ages of 18 to 30 years old at the time of final selection (i.e. at the time of signing the contract by the intern and Alternatives);
- Have never participated in the IYIP (with some exceptions: see our FAQ section)

Interested? To register, please access the form below by clicking on apply.

Only those who send their CV and covering letter (in PDF via the registration form) will be considered in the selection process.

Information: psij@alternatives.ca

Take your chance!